

Director of Development

Be a part of a dynamic organization that promotes public understanding of the law and improvements in Ohio's justice system. This newly-created full time position offers the qualified professional an outstanding opportunity to establish and implement fundraising and development efforts for a law-related Foundation.

This position will direct the Ohio State Bar Foundation's development efforts for Board, staff and volunteers; direct and oversee an effective and responsive donor relations program; cultivate relationships; prepare and implement all fundraising plans and programs; develop budget projections and recommend fundraising goals.

Headquartered in Columbus, the Ohio State Bar Foundation, is a 501(c)(3) organization with assets of more than $25 million. The Foundation is the charitable affiliate of the Ohio State Bar Association and is the recognized forum for civic minded lawyers in Ohio. The Foundation awards grants, develops programs, and recognizes excellence in the legal profession. Please visit osbf.net to learn about the Foundation and it's good work.

Candidates will have a minimum of three or more years of relevant fundraising experience with particular experience developing and implementing an annual campaign and/or creating a development structure. A Bachelor's degree is required, masters is preferred; CFRE, Foundation and planned giving expertise desirable; experience working with lawyers a plus. This position works as a colleague, supports the Foundation's Development Committee and reports to the Executive Director.
